

YAO CUN, 04S34
HWA CHONG INSITUTION

This is a design of a flower growing under the bright sunshine and rainbow. The name of this design is 'flower of equations'.

My design illustrates that students are in a very good environment which suitable for their development.

Throughout the whole process of designing, I not only learned more new mathematics equations, but also realising that there is a new link between methematics and arts.