

NG CHEE YANG, 4G
HWA CHONG INSTITUTION

The buildings represent a city life and the birds flying in the horizon represents freedom. I feel that maths enables us to express certain kind of issues or problems while the graphic calculator, in this case allows the freedom for expression and enables the expression to be portrayed. I learnt many more functions on the graphic calculator as I was working on my design.