

CHEW ANNSIONG, 06S33
VICTORIA JUNIOR COLLEGE

I chose to portray the Arctic as I love exotic places and it is one of the few places on Earth that is almost untouched by man due to its extreme harsh and cold conditions. Penguins however have the extraordinary ability to thrive in it, catching fish. I also learn that snowflakes are geometric fractals, and could be describe by complex equations, an aspect that graphic calculators cannot handle.