

LEE JUNTING BASIL
ANGLO-CHINESE SCHOOL (INDEPENDENT)

This design shows an underwater volcano in the process of erupting. I learnt about how to create more interesting designs using more complex equations such as the use of sine, cosine and tangent in making these designs. I have also realized the beauty that can be generated using the graphical display calculator.