

CHAN MENG WEN PETER, 3.10
ANGLO-CHINESE SCHOOL (INDEPENDENT)

This design shows blades of grass being showered by a torrent of rain. The rain symbolizes nurturing and nourishment, while the grass represents growth through perseverance as though the frail blades of grass get battered by the heavy downpour of rain, water is essential for the grass' survival and growth.