A cup of coffee in my picture symbolizes the source of idea and creativity which is needed in fashion in order to come up with new designs. I observed that many people, for example the great author of Harry Potter, J.K. Rowling, like to sit in a café with a cup of coffee to relax, observe the surroundings and find new ideas. Coffee nowadays also has become some kind of trend as well as fashion. Another object is Eiffel tower and a model which signifies Paris as a mode city. In the process, I learn that math can be learnt in a fun and creative ways.
