This design is a star with a rainbow coming from a magical swirl. This is more related to kids fashion, as this design has the wonderland feel. It is as if the star is giving out its magic into a beautiful rainbow, which usually means happiness and no more worries.

These are often linked to children themes, so this design can be used on children's wear to create an innocent effect.

Since this design is also more to the feminine side, it can also be used on female accessories for grownups who want to feel young (i.e, belts, bags, earrings, necklaces)
