As more and more people in the world are studying Chinese, Chinese calligraphy has become a fashion. The two characters in grass script have the meaning "peace" in Chinese. A peaceful world has long been a dream everyone yearns for. I hope I can take this opportunity do a small contribution in promoting peace. Indeed, if peace becomes a fashion, our world will be a better world.

I learnt new types of graphs that I have never seen before and also realized the powerful functions of the graphic calculator. How art is wonderfully expressed in mathematics!
