I was surfing the internet one day and I came across this website that leave a deep impression. It is “OWL 2007 collection, summer and spring”. <http://www.owl.com.cn/main.htm>. The cloths designed by them are very unique and the website is very well designed too. Therefore, I draw an owl to represent my thoughts. I learnt how to limit the value of X in order to create the desired line of my choices. I have learnt how to use ‘OR’ and ‘And’ during the processing.
