

TIMOTHY RADITYA SOLICHIN, 432
ST JOSEPH'S INSTITUTION

I am very interested in design of brooches, especially one which is embedded with gems. I have never touched graphical calculator before. Through this learning experience, I learned the polar function which is very fascinating. It could create many radial and circular graphs. I also learn that sine, cosine and tangent curve result in wonderful graphic instead of just plain curve.